Chicken Wraps at the Stewpot

The Stewpot First Wednesday Group served a favorite meal to the diners on Wednesday, May 4 - Chicken Wraps. The wraps consisted of a mixture of chicken, onions, cheese and lettuce seasoned with Asian Sesame Toasted dressing. An assembly line was formed and individuals added the items to a large flour tortilla. The tortilla was folded and wrapped in individual papers and served along with a peanut butter and jelly sandwich, a large package of ranch dressing, cookies and a package of potato chips. Nancy says that the wraps are one of the favorite meals of the diners. To see a short video, click on Making Wraps Video below.

Spotlight on...

Nay Phillips

Nay Phillips works for Ben E Keith Foods. He first started in the warehouse and worked on the forklift for about 3 years. When there was an opening in receiving, he applied for the position, got it and worked in it for about 4 years. Then he drove for the company for the next 10 years. He also delivered to the Stewpot as well. He has known Ed Brown for many years. Nay got an opportunity to become a sales rep for the company about 1 1/2 years ago and then another opportunity arose to get the Stewpot account as well. In September, he will have been with Ben E Keith Foods for 18 years. He loves to come to the Stewpot on his lunch hour for special meals and cookouts to give his time to help the Stewpot diners.

If you see Nay at one of these functions, please tell him "Thank You" from the Stewpot.

The Stewpot held a Memorial Day cookout for the Stewpot diners on Thursday, May 19. The regular Thursday team prepared the food and Nancy and Lee Carter, Adrienne Kulousek, Shirley Garlington and Kay McCollum served the food. Jason and Sherry grilled hotdogs, nearly 500 of them. The diners also had homemade potato salad, coleslaw, and special chocolate trifle for dessert.
